SB = "Swiss Backpackers". All hostels marked with "SB" are members of the Swiss Backpackers association and comply with minimum standards such as self catering kitchen and/or reasonably priced restaurant, 24 hour access and personal attention at reception. These hostels are independently owned and operated. Their standards, provisions and methods of management may vary accordingly. All offer dormitories as well as a choice of smaller rooms. No membership is required. www.swissbackpackers.ch

HI = "Hostelling International". All hostels marked with "HI" are members of the Swiss Youth Hostel Association. The brand stands for the role as a low-cost provider that values high quality and promotes socially responsible and green tourism.

Non-HI members have to pay a surcharge of CHF 6.– per night (families CHF 12.–/night). The cheapest way to become a member is to register in your country before you depart. www.youthhostel.ch
